Financial Statements

December 31, 2006 and 2005

(with Independent Certified

Public Accountants' Report thereon)

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Members FD Capital, LLC

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FD Capital, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related statements of earnings, members' equity and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FD Capital, LLC as of December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in the Supplemental Schedule is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

(1) Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business

FD Capital, LLC (the "Company") is a Georgia limited liability company formed January 5, 2005. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD"). The Company received approval to become a broker-dealer on February 14, 2006.

The Company offers consulting and mergers and acquisitions services and also offers securities private placement services.

Basis of Presentation

The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Consulting fees are recorded as services are performed. Investment banking fees and fees for private placement transactions and related expenses are recorded at closing of the securities offerings for which the Company is serving as investment banker.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include certain investments in highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less.

Income Taxes

As a limited liability corporation, the tax consequences of the Company's operations all pass through to the members. Accordingly, the Company's financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes.

(2) Related Party Transactions

FD Holdings, II, LLC ("FD Holdings"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Frazier & Deeter, LLC ("Frazier & Deeter"), owns 45% of the Company. The Company has an Administrative Services Agreement with Frazier & Deeter, whereby Frazier & Deeter provides administrative services including office space, computer systems and support, accounting and bookkeeping, telephone and fax, copying and printing and parking for a fee of $8,500 per month.

The Company paid the following to Frazier & Deeter under this agreement during 2006 and 2005 as follows:

|                                | 2006   | 2005   |
|--------------------------------|---------------|---------------|

| Other administrative services  | 36,000 | 30,000 |
|                                | $102.000 | 85.000        |

The Company also has a Service Mark License Agreement with Frazier & Deeter, whereby the Company is licensed by Frazier & Deeter to use the FD service mark, which is the trade mark owned by Frazier & Deeter, along with the goodwill of Frazier & Deeter in connection with its business and marketing efforts for a fee of $11,500 per month. The Company paid a total of $138,000 and $115,000 to Frazier & Deeter under this agreement in 2006 and 2005, respectively.

During 2005, the Company also had a revolving line of credit in the amount of $250,000 with Frazier & Deeter whereby the Company could request advances from time to time for working capital and general corporate purposes. The line of credit is unsecured, matured on December 31, 2006 and bears no interest. During 2005, the Company received advances totaling $245,768, which had been fully repaid prior to December 31, 2005. This line of credit was subsequently terminated in February 2006, and FD Holdings made an additional $150,000 member contribution to the Company.

Effective January 1, 2007, FD Holdings withdrew from the Company. On December 29, 2006, the Company paid FD Holdings a total of $156,000, which included a return of contributed capital of $152,700 plus $3,300, representing FD Holding's share of current year income. The Administrative Services Agreement and Service Mark License Agreement were terminated effective December 31, 2006.

(3) Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2006, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $146,344, which was $141,344 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .22 to 1.
